

Africa 1987 and 1988

These photos were taken in Africa in 1987 and 1988.

Michael Work
comments: This was the best Basenji we saw: beautiful
topline, hooded ears, color and shape of dark eye. We tried everything possible to buy her but were unsuccessful.

Photo © Michael Work

Photo left © Damara Bolte and photo right © Micahel Work

Photos on this page © Michael Work

This litter of pups included the pup who became Avongara Gangura. He can be seen behind the two litter mates.

Lower photos on this page © Michael Work

Photos on this page © Michael Work

Photos on this page © Michael Work

The Famous Hunting Party Photo

© Michael Work

The photo on the previous page is a hunting party that Jon Curby and Michael Work came across in their travels. The dog in the arms of the man in the center is also the dog in the photo to the right on this page.

Jon Curby is shown below obtaining the pup who became Avongara Bazingbi from the owners. She was sired by the dog from the hunting party. The hunters felt he was an excellent hunting dog.

These photos © Michael Work

